Get to market faster without compromising functionality

Origami Risk

For MGAs, scaling operations and enhancing profitability can be challenging, especially when technology implementations are costly and time-consuming. Direct Deploy for MGAs removes these barriers, offering a fully functional core solution that accelerates onboarding and business value—without sacrificing flexibility or capability.

Speed, efficiency, and business growth—all in one package

Traditional system implementations can take months, draining resources and delaying market momentum. Direct Deploy flips the script, enabling MGAs to be fully operational within weeks using a streamlined approach:

- Structured requirements-gathering process ensures rapid understanding of business needs while maintaining industry best practices.

- Predefined sprint plans offer clear timelines and schedules to optimize efficiency.

- Standardized resourcing and staffing plans help teams focus on what matters most—success.

- Grow-with-you pricing enables clients to start with essential functionality and grow over time, without having to migrate to a new platform.

- Comprehensive user guide, available even before contract signing, provides upfront education and preparation to maximize system adoption.

- Out-of-the-box functionalities such as preconfigured transaction forms, integration with external raters, and a standard database ensure MGAs are equipped with the right tools from day one.

Seamless integration without disruption

New technology shouldn't slow business down— it should help MGAs move faster. Direct Deploy alleviates integration headaches by offering a prebuilt template with industry-standard processes that can be tailored to each MGA's specific needs. Cybersecurity concerns are addressed through Origami's superior cloud-native SaaS platform, keeping operations secure, reliable, and continuously updated without manual intervention.

Expand & adapt without limitations

MGAs need solutions that grow alongside their business. While Direct Deploy includes essential features to maximize speed-to-market, the platform is built for scalability. Users gain access to the same solution as all Origami carrier and MGA clients, ensuring long-term flexibility without the need for migration down the line.

Unlocking business intelligence & market agility

Data-driven decision-making is essential for MGAs seeking growth and competitive advantage. Direct Deploy provides powerful analytics, reporting, and insights, surfacing key business intelligence to improve underwriting decisions, KPI tracking, and risk selection.

With Origami's low-code configurations, users can effortlessly adjust underwriting and business rules, formulas, documentation, and communications— without requiring extensive IT support or custom development.

Additionally, automation and straight-through processing streamline workflows, minimizing manual intervention and enhancing policyholder experiences.

Fast. Efficient. Scalable.

Unlock the full potential of your underwriting advantage.
